Invites you to join us for our

Cameroon, West Africa

Mission Trip

March 17th through March 27th, 2010

MINISTRY DESCRIPTION

How many times have you packed a shoebox and sent it to a child who you may never meet, wondering what it must feel like to be there in person sharing the Gospel message directly with that child, while modeling compassion as Christ did in a tangible way? Well, now you can! Be a short-term missions ambassador, serving with a team that will help distribute over 2,500 brand new pairs of shoes and backpacks filled with school supplies to children in need in the schools and village communities in Cameroon. This trip is designed for those who have compassion and a strong desire for children in Africa. We'll visit schools, possibly a prison ministry and church communities to share the hope of Christ and demonstrate Christ's love as we wash and anoint the feet of impoverished children, and equip their feet with a new pair of shoes and give each child a backpack filled with school supplies. We have the option to provide medical care, and conducting sports clinics for kids, through our partnership with local pastors, and our humanitarian mission partners.

$3,000.00 Cost includes air and ground transportation, accommodation, meals, trip insurance, trip preparation training/meetings and bottled water during the entire trip.

MINIMUM/MAXIMUM:

Team size will be 10 to 18 people. You must be 16 years of age or older to travel alone. If you are a minor less than 16 years of age, you must be accompanied by an adult or guardian to participate on this trip.
