

- Adult Care and Share Center, Charlotte......$5,620
Senior day care center providing nutritious food and safe haven for low income persons.
- Bethlehem Center, Charlotte......$16,070
Southside community center offers youth programs, senior citizen activities, and drug and alcohol rehabilitation. Grant provides hot lunches and nutritious after school snacks.
- Biscoe Food Pantry, (MCCA)......$2,410
Ecumenical emergency food pantry operated by the various churches and youth groups in Biscoe, serving the needs of the hungry in eastern Montgomery County.
- Blessed Assurance Adult Care......$4,010
Provides nutritional meals to senior and special population adults, and life enhancing programs and services designed to promote their independence.
- Cabarrus Meals on Wheels, Concord......$4,010
A home-delivered lunch program providing food for low income participants.
- Charlotte Emergency Housing (Plaza Place).....$3,210
Provides meals for homeless families and single women in this transitional shelter. Also stocks pantries for families when they leave.
- Charlotte Rescue Mission......$3,620
This grant went to help feed men who are enrolled in the Rebound program for Alcohol and Drug Rehabilitation.
- Common Ground Outreach Ministry......$480
Located in the Bent Oaks Community in Charlotte, the grant helps buy food for the After-School care program.
- Communities in Schools, Montgomery Co......$5,260
Provides food thru Backpack Pals program for selected elementary school children in county who are participating in the free or reduced b'fast and lunch programs to provide nutrition to these student on weekends when they cannot access the lunch program at school.
- Community Culinary School......$1,010
Provides training and job placement in the food service industry for people who are chronically unemployed.
- Cooperative Christian Ministry (Cabarrus).....$6,010
Emergency food pantry, soup kitchen and crisis ministry serving the Concord and Kannapolis area.
- Crisis Assistance Ministry, Charlotte......$17,250
Central crisis response agency for Mecklenburg County, providing food on an emergency basis.
- CUP Ministries......$2,810
(Christians United for People)
Emergency food and clothing ministry serving the urban poor in North Charlotte.
- Double Oaks Nursery......$1,440
Pre-school and after-school daycare for young children in the central Charlotte area including Statesville Avenue and North Graham Street corridors.
- Friendship Trays, Charlotte......$17,650
Seven day a week home lunch delivery. Grant provides for low income recipients.
- Helping Hands, Richmond County......$6,010
Provides food through Backpack Pals program with the purpose of feeding the children on weekends during the school year.
- Kannapolis Food Pantry......$2,410
Serving needy members of the community thru a food pantry at West Point Baptist Church in Kannapolis.
- Korean Senior Center......$3,210
Providing meals to Korean senior citizens in a fellowship setting.
- Lakewood Preschool Co-op......$2,000
Cooperative effort among parents, children, and staff, for children in Lakewood. (Breakfast and snacks)
- Loaves & Fishes, Inc......$9,637
Provides groceries to people in crisis. Clients are referred by human services agencies or ministries in the Mecklenburg County area.
- Loaves & Fishes, Union......$1,210
Distributes food on an emergency basis, reaching the needy in Union County through a referral process.
- Loving Care Adult Day Care......$6,410
(See Adult Care and Share)
- Loving Touch Adult Day Care......$8,420
(See Adult Care and Share)
- MCCA Meals on Wheels......$3,200
(Montgomery County Churches in Action)
(See Cabarrus Meals on Wheels)
- MCCA Backpack......$2,900
(Montgomery County Churches in Action)
Serving the hungry in western Montgomery County.
- Mt. Gilead Food Bank......$4,010
Church in Mt. Gilead area providing food of nutritional value to local poor and those who need help supplementing their groceries.
- Mt. Pleasant Food Ministry (Cabarrus).....$1,200
Provides groceries for families in need located in the Mt. Pleasant School District
- Neighborhood Good Samaritan......$2,410
A new food pantry reaching out to the African immigrant population within the Charlotte area.
- New Friends Adult Day Care......$9,830
(See Adult Care and Share)
- New Hampton Day Care......$1,100
Provided meals to children in the daycare, afterschool program, and summer programs, intentionally reaching out to a multicultural community.
- Operation Breadbasket (Concord)......$1,600
This is a small, but very busy food pantry.
- Operation Reach-out, Monroe......$7,210
Ecumenical emergency food pantry serving Union County.
- Pageland Community Assistance......$1,600
Community Needs including food—Pageland, SC area
- Pageland First Child Care......$1,800
Providing food for the children in their program.
- PALS (Adult Care and Share).....$3,600
This Senior day care center, located at two sites, provides a safe and productive environment for older adults. The grant helps pay for a hot lunch and two healthy snacks.
- Restoration House Ministries......$2,410
Homeless and Rehabilitation ministry in Monroe

Richmond County Mental Health.....$5,990
Provided funds for two soup kitchens, emergency food boxes and homeless shelter serving that area's needy.

Samaritan House, Charlotte.....$2,410
Providing three meals per day in a recuperative care home setting providing respite care for homeless individuals when they are discharged from the hospital.

Samaritan Station.....$2,810
A food pantry located in Covenant Church, Kannapolis—providing emergency food needs

Second Harvest.....$2,410
Solicits and distributes food and other grocery products through partner agencies and educates the community about the nature and solutions of hunger.

Seigle Avenue Preschool Co-op.....$1,120
(See Lakewood Preschool Co-op)

Seigle Avenue Partners.....$1,200
Provides meals that allow for building hope into the lives of children and their families who live in the Belmont Community.

Seigle Avenue Wonderful Wednesday.....$970
Providing meal service to school-age children in the Wonderful Wednesday Christian Education program at Seigle Avenue PC in Charlotte.

Seigle Avenue PC/North Charlotte Youth.....$1,200
Feeding 50+ youth at the safe Saturday night programs, and using the opportunity to teach these young people healthy eating habits and how to make healthy food.

Society of St. Andrew (gleaning).....$5,610
Food rescue and distribution agency, specializing in gleaning projects.

Stanly City Christian Ministry, Albemarle.....$6,010
Ecumenical crisis response agency with a food pantry.

Sugaw Creek Vietnamese Fellowship.....$1,990
Ministry providing meals to members and community of this fellowship that are in need.

TAPS.....$790
(Dolly Tate—Teen Age Parents Service, Charlotte)
Purchases food for pregnant teenagers, to eat during break times. Food is prepared by Home Economics Class.

Tri-Language Haitian Church.....$750 provided emergency funding for feeding families of single moms, single folks, congregation and community to meet the need of those who are hungry.

Union County Community Shelter.....$6,010
Soup Kitchen providing dinners for the homeless.

University Adult Day Care.....$6,420
(See Adult Care and Share)

Uptown Shelter, Charlotte.....$12,040
Transition shelter that provides meals for homeless men.

Urban Ministries—St. Peter's Soup Kitchen.....$12,040
Daily lunches for the hungry in Charlotte's inner city.

West Boulevard Senior Alliance.....$3,210
Provides meals for monthly luncheon meetings—purpose of program is to meet needs of older adults in the West Boulevard community and beyond.

Year 2008

Total Receipts.....$252,141.00

Includes:

Self-Help Credit Union Interest.....$800.00

Donations from Congregations.....$230,860.00

Donations from Individuals.....$661.00

Total Distributed by 5c-A-Meal in 2007 ...$252,100.00

And Jesus said, "You give them something to eat"
-Mark 6:37

"...Blessed are those who give food to the poor..."
-Psalm 146:5-8

5 cents A Meal

2008

ANNUAL REPORT

All monies granted stay within the bounds of this Presbytery. Every cent of the money goes to agencies/ministries for the purchase of food exclusively.

