

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH – MONROE
MUSIC DIRECTOR
POSITION DESCRIPTION

First Presbyterian Church of Monroe is looking for someone who will help shape our worship experience as a musical experience that utilizes all instruments and abilities. We do not desire an artificial divide between traditional/contemporary but hope for a leader who will craft and lead us in all expressions of worship.

The director will prepare Sunday worship, lead choir rehearsal, arrange music scholars from Wingate University during the school year and prepare several special music Sundays.

Salary: $30,000 (negotiable)

Hours

Sunday Morning: 9:30 – 11:30 AM

Wednesday, Evening choir practice

Prep/Administrative Time

Special Occasions (Advent/Lent Cantata, Christmas Eve etc.)

Vacation: 4 weeks/Sundays w/pay

Responsible to: Pastor Jason Hickman (head of staff), Session/Personnel

Expectations

To help keep the worship experience Biblical, polished, professional, spiritual, fun, energized

To oversee all special music, choir, music scholars

To work alongside pastor and others as applicable to prepare for special services (including but not limited to):

Advent Cantata/Musical celebration

Christmas Eve

Lent Cantata/Musical celebration

Easter

Maundy Thursday Evening Service (negotiable)

To incorporate music scholars from Wingate University in our choir and worship as special music

To incorporate local musicians/talent on special occasions such as Easter/Christmas Cantatas

Send resumes to: Rev. Jason Hickman, 302 Windsor Street, Monroe, NC 28112 or revjeh@yahoo.com