

CENTRAL STEELE CREEK PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
DIRECTOR OF MUSIC MINISTRIES

We are seeking a part-time Director of Music Ministries that develops and leads the Christian music program of the church in blended services. The successful candidate will be coordinating the entire music program of the church, including the adult choir, the children's choir and the youth choir. The position also includes coordinating any other music ensembles. We are looking for someone to lead us in blended Sunday worship services, developing and promoting a praise band/group. The candidate must have sufficient musical skills and personal charisma to attract others to musical activities in the church and inspire them to use and develop their talents to the glory of God. A familiarity with Presbyterian worship is an asset.

Qualifications:

The candidate should have a background in church music with a minimum of 1-3 years' experience in accompanying and directing choirs. A bachelor's degree in music is preferred or equivalent experience. Ability to play the organ is a plus.

A background check will be required along with youth protection training before employment is offered.
